Request

A letter of transmittal asked Chairman Hochberg about General Electric and for a response about their banking interest.

Status

1. EXIM Bank announced on their web site a "Lapse" in their organizational capacity. An online claim of capacity and non-capacity gives notice of Common Law corporate expiration. Project Socrates was a program that fell out of favor and was funded and then was defunded in April 1990. Lack of funding was the cause of its final expiration. It was economically important for the people and it expired.
2. The EXIM Bank is important today, for the people's jobs and the economy that provides the work. The actions herein register and reform the current bank. The current Lien for money, the Stay of Execution provides time for an Estate creation and to value the Public Policy Project's merged Estate. The Sovereign People of America shall have the right to be paid, and to determine the future under the Common Law of Our Constitution.

Estate

The sole Chancellor shall cause the construction of a digital model for the determination of Redress of the Estate.

Tommy Hugh Crenshaw, Chancellor
